GIP 2017 – 10 YEARS OF TALENT DEVELOPMENT

GIA's longstanding talent development initiative, the annual GIA Internship Programme or GIP as it is commonly known, will be celebrating its 10th year of bringing new talents into the general insurance industry in 2017.

First launched in 2008 under the guidance of the then Regional Development Committee, the GIP was developed with the key aim of providing undergraduates of all disciplines with opportunities to experience and immerse in the dynamic general insurance industry.

A unique feature of the GIP is its structured approach and focus on holistic experiential learning. Before joining their host companies, interns go through a week-long pre-internship training programme where veteran guest speakers from the industry share industry insights and offer interns a glimpse into the day-to-day operations of an industry practitioner.

The success of the GIP has seen over 200 undergraduates benefit from the programme, with over 40 GIP alumni still active in the industry.

If you are interested to host an intern for GIP 2017, please contact gip@gia.org.sg for more information.

GIA GIVES BACK

GIA was pleased to be invited by the Society for the Aged Sick to visit its premises and view their newly acquired ambulance, fully funded by GIA's donations to the Home. These donations were raised through GIA's Swing for Charity golf events in 2013 and 2016.

The GIA Charity Golf is an annual corporate social responsibility event first started by the association in 2006 to raise funds for the needy and give back to society. Over the past 11 years, sponsors and donors from the industry have come together to donate over $1.8 million to 19 different beneficiaries and causes.

This year, the GIA Charity Golf 2017 will be held on 6 October 2017 at the Tanah Merah Country Club. To join us as a sponsor, please contact the GIA organizing team at jonathan.ooi@gia.org.sg or jessica.li@gia.org.sg.

GIA APPRECIATION NIGHT 2016

In celebration of yet another successful year for the General Insurance Association of Singapore (GIA), the association held its annual Appreciation Night on 2 December 2016 at The Wine Company Dempsey in dedication to the contribution and support.

The yearly get-together was graced by GIA members, fellow industry practitioners and partners. In his welcome speech, GIA President, Mr A K Cher, alluded to the support shown to GIA and its initiatives and thanked everyone for their contribution and committed support.

With conversations aplenty, the evening also served as a platform for fellow industry colleagues to renew and forge new friendships during the festive season.
